And whereas by an Act made in the sixteenth Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King George the Second, intituled, An Act for repealing certain Duties upon Spirituous Liquors, and on Licences for retailing the same, and for laying other Duties on Spirituous Liquors, and on Licences to retail the said Liquors; certain Rates and Duties were laid upon Spirituous Liquors: And whereas by another Act made in the same Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act for raising, by Annuities and a Lottery in Manner therein mentioned, the Sum of one million eight hundred thousand Pounds, at three Pounds per Centum per Annum, for the Service of the Year one thousand seven hundred and forty-three; the said Rates and Duties upon Spirituous Liquors were charged with, and made subject and liable to, the Payment of the Annuities, after the Rate of three Pounds per Centum per Annum, transferrable at the Bank of England, which by the said Act were granted, in respect of the principal Sum of one million eight hundred thousand Pounds, advanced upon the Credit of the said Rates and Duties; and the Surplus or Remainder of the Monies arising by the said Rates and Duties, after satisfying, or reserving Money sufficient to satisfy, the said several and respective Annuities, and all Arrears thereof, was by the said Act reserved for the Disposition of Parliament: And whereas by an Act made in the seventeenth Year of his said late Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for granting to his Majesty the Surplus or Remainder of the Monies arisen, or to arise, by the Duties on Spirituous Liquors, granted by an Act of the last Session of Parliament, and for explaining and amending the said Act in relation to the Retailers of such Liquors; and for establishing an Agreement with the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East-Indies; the said Surplus or Remainder was charged with, and made subject and liable to, the Payment of an Annuity or yearly Sum of thirty thousand Pounds to the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East-Indies, in manner therein mentioned: And whereas by another Act made in the same Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act for raising by Annuities and a Lottery, in manner therein mentioned, the Sum of one million eight hundred thousand Pounds at three Pounds per Centum per Annum, for the Service of the Year one thousand seven hundred and forty-four, the said Surplus or Remainder, after paying or reserving sufficient to pay to the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East-Indies, the said Annuity or yearly Payment of thirty thousand Pounds, was charged with, and made subject and liable to, the Payment of the Annuities transferrable at the Bank of England, which by the said Act were granted, in respect of the principal Sum of one million eight hundred thousand Pounds, advanced upon the Credit of the said Surplus or Remainder; and the Surplus or Remainder of the Monies arising by the said Rates and Duties, after satisfying, or reserving Money sufficient to satisfy, all the said several or respective Annuities, and all Arrears thereof, was, by the said last-mentioned Act, reserved for the Disposition of Parliament: And whereas by an Act made in the nineteenth Year of his said late Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for granting to his Majesty several Rates and Duties upon Glass, and upon Spirituous Liquors; and for raising a certain Sum of Money by Annuities, and a Lottery, to be charged on the said Rates and Duties; and for obviating some Doubts about making out Orders at the Exchequer for the Monies advanced upon the Credit of the Salt Duties, granted and continued to his Majesty by an Act of the last Session of Parliament; certain Rates and Duties were laid upon Glass and upon Spirituous Liquors, and the said Rates and Duties were by the said Act charged with, and made subject and liable to, the Payment of the Annuities transferrable at the Bank of England, nuity of 30,000l. to the

45,000l. for Annuities
for Lives payable at the

and the Surplus or Remainder of the Monies arising by the said Rates and Duties, after satisfying or reserving Money sufficient to satisfy all the said several and respective Annuities, was by the said Act reserved for the Disposition of Parliament: And whereas by an Act made in the twenty-fourth Year of his said late Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for granting to his Majesty an additional Duty upon Spirituous Liquors, and upon Licences for retailing the same; and for repealing the Act of the twentieth Year of his present Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for granting a Duty to his Majesty to be paid by Distillers upon Licences to be taken out by them for retailing Spirituous Liquors; and for the more effectually restraining the retailing of distilled Spirituous Liquors; and for allowing a Drawback upon the Exportation of British made Spirits; and that the Parish of Saint Mary le Bon, in the County of Middlesex, shall be under the Inspection of the Head Office of Excise; certain additional Rates and Duties were laid upon Spirituous Liquors, and the said Rates and Duties were, by the said Act made subject and liable to the same Uses and Purposes as the then subsisting Duties on Spirituous Liquors were at that Time liable and appropriated unto: And whereas by an Act made in the twenty-fifth Year of his said late Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for converting the several Annuities therein mentioned into several Joint Stocks of Annuities, transferrable at the Bank of England, to be charged on the Sinking Fund, and also for consolidating the several other Annuities therein mentioned, into several Joint Stocks of Annuities, transferrable at the South Sea House; all the said several and respective Annuities transferrable at the Bank of England, herein before-mentioned to have been charged upon any of the several Rates and Duties upon Spirituous Liquors, were, from the Time in the said Act mentioned, charged upon, and directed to be paid out of, the Sinking Fund; and such of the said Rates and Duties upon Spirituous Liquors as had been granted and appropriated by the several and respective Acts, in the said last-mentioned Act before recited; that is to say, By the Acts which have been herein before mentioned to have been made in the sixteenth, seventeenth, and nineteenth Years of his said late Majesty's Reign, for Payment of the said several and respective Annuities transferrable at the Bank of England, as aforesaid, were directed to be carried to, and made Part of, the said Sinking Fund, after reserving sufficient to pay the Annuities for Lives at the Exchequer, and other Charges and Incumbrances charged on the said Rates and Duties: And whereas the Rates and Duties on Spirituous Liquors granted by the said Act of the twenty-fourth Year of his said late Majesty's Reign, not being by the said Act of the twenty-fourth Year of his said late Majesty's Reign, directed to be carried to, and made Part of, the Sinking Fund, still remained subject and liable, in common with the former Rates and Duties on Spirituous Liquors, to the Payment of such Charges and Incumbrances originally charged upon the said Rates and Duties on Spirituous Liquors, as had not been by virtue of the said Act of the twenty-fifth Year of the Reign of his said late Majesty transferred to the Sinking Fund; and the Surplus of the said Rates and Duties granted by the Act of the twenty-fourth Year of the Reign of his said late Majesty, still remained, by virtue of the several Acts herein before recited, reserved for the Disposition of Parliament: And whereas by an Act of the thirty-third Year of the Reign of his said late Majesty, intituled, An Act for preventing the excessive Use of Spirituous Liquors, by laying additional Duties thereon; for shortening the Prohibition of making Low Wines and Spirits from Wheat, Barley, Malt, or other Grain, and from Meal, Flour and Bran; for encouraging the Exportation of British made Spirits; and for more effectually securing the Duties payable upon Spirits; and preventing the fraudulent Relanding or Importation thereof; certain farther additional Rates and Duties were laid on Spirituous Liquors, and were, by the said Act, directed to be appropriated and applied to the same Uses and Purposes as the then subsisting Duties on Spirituous Liquors were, at that Time applicable and appropriated unto; so that as well the Surplus or Remainder of the Monies arisen or to arise from the said Rates and Duties upon Spirituous Liquors granted by the said Act of the twenty-fourth Year of the Reign of his said late Majesty, as from those granted by the said Act of the thirty-third Year of his said late Majesty, after satisfying the said Annuities or yearly Payments of thirty thousand Pounds, and forty-five thousand Pounds, to the Payment of which all the Duties on Spirituous Liquors, granted by the several Acts herein before-mentioned, stand in the first Place liable and appropriated, do, by virtue of the said several Acts, stand reserved for the Disposition of Parliament: And whereas the Annuities payable by virtue of this Act in respect of the Sum of twelve millions, are hereby charged upon, and directed to be paid out of, the Sinking Fund; Monies arising in the Exchequer by the additional Duties on Spirituous Liquors, granted by an Act of this Session, to be carried into the Sinking Fund.

XXIV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Person or Persons shall be sued, molested, or prosecuted for any Thing done by virtue or in pursuance of this Act, such Person or Persons shall and may plead the General Issue, and give this Act, and the Special Matter, in Evidence, in his or their Defence or Defences: And if afterwards a Verdict shall pass for the Defendant or Defendants, or the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs shall discontinue his or their Action or Actions, or be nonsuited, or Judgment shall be given against him, her or them, upon Demurrer, or otherwise, then such Defendant or Defendants shall have treble Costs awarded to him, her or them, against any such Plaintiff or Plaintiffs. ### C A P. XVII.

An Act for Relief of the Vassals of the several Estates which are or may be annexed to the Crown, by virtue of an Act passed in the twenty-fifth Year of the Reign of his late Majesty, and for carrying the Purposes of the said Act more effectually into Execution; and for enforcing and carrying into Execution so much of an Act, passed in the first Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, as relates to the paying and discharging the Wadsetts affecting the Estate of Lovat.

Preamble, reciting Clauses in Act 25 Geo. 2. c. 41.

WHEREAS by an Act made in the twenty-fifth Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King George the Second, intituled, An Act for annexing certain forfeited Estates in Scotland to the Crown unalienably; and for making Satisfaction to the lawful Creditors thereupon; and to establish a Method for managing the same; and applying the Rents and Profits thereof; for the better civilizing and improving the Highlands of Scotland, and preventing Disorders there for the future; it is, among other Things, enacted, That the Lands and Heretages which became forfeited to his late Majesty by the Attainder of Simon late Lord Lovat; John Drummond, taking upon himself the Stile or Title of Lord John Drummond, Brother to James Drummond, taking upon himself the Title of Duke of Perth; George late Earl of Cromarty; and Archibald Mac Donald, Son of Coll Mac Donald of Barrisdale; and also the Barony of Strowan; and all other Lands and Hereditaments which formerly belonged to Alexander Robertson of Strowan, and became forfeited to the Crown, by Decree or Sentence of Forfeiture passed in the Parliament of Scotland in the Year one thousand six hundred and ninety, shall, from and after the twenty-fifth Day of December one thousand seven hundred and fifty-two, be annexed to the Imperial Crown of this Realm, and shall be and remain for ever unalienable from the same; and it is thereby enacted, That it shall be lawful to and for his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, by Commission under the Privy Seal of Scotland, to authorize and empower such Person or Persons as his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors shall think fit, from Time to Time, to be Commissioners and Trustees for managing the said Estates, and applying the Produce thereof for the Ends and Purposes appointed by the said Act: And whereas his late Majesty, by his Commission dated the twentieth of March one thousand seven hundred and fifty-five, did authorize and empower the Persons therein mentioned to be Trustees and Commissioners for managing the said annexed Estates; and which Commission was passed under the Privy Seal of Scotland the tenth Day of May in the said Year one thousand seven hundred and fifty-five; and his present Majesty, by his Commission dated the twenty-fifth Day of July in the Year one thousand seven hundred and sixty-one, did also authorize and empower the Persons therein named to be Trustees and Commissioners for managing the said annexed Estates; and which Commission also was passed under the Privy Seal of Scotland upon the third Day of August in the said Year one thousand seven hundred and sixty-one: And whereas there are many small Vassals, who, before the Forfeiture of the said Estates, held their Lands and other Heretages of the aforesaid attainted Persons and their Predecessors respectively, and who now hold the same of his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors: And whereas it would be a very grievous Burden upon the said Vassals to make up the Titles and Infeoffments of their several Lands, by Precepts from the Chancery, or by Charters under the Great Seal of

of Scotland, and to be subjected to the Expences attending the same, as required by Law in Lands holden of the Crown; Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall and may be lawful to his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, to authorize and empower the Commissioners and Trustees for managing the said Estates, named or to be named by his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, in pursuance of the Act above recited, to receive Resignations, and grant new Charters containing Precepts of Safine, and also to grant all other Charters, Precepts of Clare Constat, and other Writings whatsoever, necessary or competent for compleating the Titles of the foresaid Vassals, their Heirs, and singular Successors, in their Lands and other Heretages respectively, to be holden Feu or Blench of his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, in the same Way and Manner as the said Lands and Heretages are now holden, or may be holden, of his Majesty; and which Charters, Precepts of Safine, and Precepts of Clare Constat, to be granted by such Commissioners and Trustees, are hereby declared to be as valid and effectual to the said Vassals, their Heirs, and singular Successors, for compleating their Infeoffments in their Lands and Heretages aforesaid, as if the said Infeoffments had proceeded upon Charters and Precepts under the Seal appointed by the Treaty of Union to be kept in Scotland, in place of the Great Seal, or upon Precepts from Chancery; any Thing in the Law and Practice of Scotland to the contrary notwithstanding.

II. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all such Charters, Precepts of Safine, and Precepts of Clare Constat, to be granted by the said Commissioners and Trustees, shall, before Delivery thereof to the Vassals, be duly entered and recorded in a Book to be kept for that Purpose; and that the said Vassals shall be liable to pay, and be chargeable with the same Compositions for their Entries, as are in use to be paid in the Court of Exchequer by his Majesty's other Vassals, to be applied by the said Commissioners and Trustees for the same Uses and Purposes as the other Rents, Profits, and Casualties of the said annexed Estates, and shall further be liable to pay to the Writer, Agent, or other Officers of the said Commissioners and Trustees, employed in expeding the aforesaid Titles, such moderate Fees as the said Commissioners and Trustees shall ascertain, by a Table to be made by them for that Purpose.

III. Provided always, That it shall and may be competent to the Vassals of the said Estates, their Heirs, and singular Successors, or any of them, if they shall think fit, to make up their Titles to their respective Lands, by Precepts from the Chancery, or Charters under the Great Seal, in the same Way and Manner as is competent to the other Vassals of the Crown; and that such Titles only, and no other, shall be deemed and taken to be a Freehold Qualification, and to intitle the Vassals of the said Estates to be inrolled amongst the Freeholders, and to vote in the Election of a Member to serve in Parliament for the County, Shire, or Stewartry where their Lands lie; any Thing in this Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

IV. And whereas by the Act of the twenty-fifth Year of his late Majesty, in part above recited, it is provided, That no Person shall be capable of taking or enjoying, directly or indirectly, any Lands or Tenements, other than Mines and Fishings, by virtue of any Lease or Leases to be granted by the said Commissioners of greater annual Rent than twenty Pounds at the utmost: And whereas the Reason for excepting Mines and Fishings from the above Proviso, does equally apply to Woods and Mills; Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to the Commissioners and Trustees named, or to be named, by his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, for managing the said Estates, to grant Leases of Woods and of Mills, with the Milln Lands usually let with the same, for such yearly Rent as can be obtained for the same, though exceeding twenty Pounds Sterling; any Thing in the said Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

V. And whereas by an Act made in the first Year of his present Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for enabling his Majesty to raise the Sum of one million for the Uses and Purposes therein mentioned; and for further appropriating the Supplies granted in this Session of Parliament; and for exempting any Annuities or Sums of Money granted or to be granted to the Royal Family, from Payment of Taxes; certain Aids or Supplies granted to his Majesty, are thereby appropriated for and towards the several Uses and Purposes therein expressed; and particularly it is thereby enacted, That out of all or any of the Aids or Supplies therein mentioned, there shall and may be issued and applied any Sum or Sums of Money not exceeding thirty-eight thousand five hundred and fifty-three Pounds twelve Shillings and one Penny and three Fourths of a Penny, upon Account, for paying and discharging the Debts and Wadsett Sums, with the necessary Expences attending the Payment of the same, claimed and sustained upon the Lands and Estate which became forfeited to the Crown by the Attainder of Simon late Lord Lovat, or so much of the said Debts and Sums as shall be remaining unsatisfied, according to the several Decrees in that Behalf respectively made by the Lords of Session in Scotland, and pursuant to the Act of the twenty-fifth Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King George the Second above recited; and for the better and more easy Payment of the said Debts and Wadsett Sums, it is thereby enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioners of his Majesty's Treasury, or any three or more of them, to issue, or cause to be issued, in such Proportions as they shall think fit, to either or both of the Banks of Scotland, at Edinburgh, a Sum not exceeding thirty-eight thousand five hundred and fifty-three Pounds twelve Shillings and one Penny three Fourths of a Penny, to be applied in paying and discharging the said Debts and Sums, with the necessary Expence attending the Payment of the same; and the several Creditors, whose Claims have been sustained upon the said Lands and Estates as aforesaid, are thereby directed and required

‘ on or before the fifth Day of July one thousand seven hundred and sixty-one, to produce, or cause to be produced, in his Majesty’s Court of Exchequer in Scotland, the Decree or Decrees of the Court of Session, sustaining the said Claims; and, upon producing of every such Decree or Decrees, the Barons of the said Court of Exchequer are thereby impowered and required to make out Debentures or Certificates, under their Hands, for the several Sums of Money which shall appear to be due by and under the said Decrees respectively; and the several Sums contained in the said Debentures or Certificates are directed to be paid, at Sight, by the said Bank or Banks, out of the Money aforesaid, to the Person or Persons intitled by the said Debentures to receive the same: Provided always, That if the Decree or Decrees, sustaining the Claim or Claims of any Creditor or Creditors aforesaid, shall not be produced in his Majesty’s said Court of Exchequer, on or before the fifth Day of July one thousand seven hundred and sixty-one, as aforesaid, such Claim or Claims shall not carry any farther Interest after the said first Day of July one thousand seven hundred and sixty-one: And whereas, in pursuance of the Act last above recited, the Sum of thirty-seven thousand three hundred and forty-eight Pounds nine Shillings and five Pence, was issued by the Commissioners of his Majesty’s Treasury, and lodged in the Royal Bank of Scotland at Edinburgh, preceeding the said fifth Day of July one thousand seven hundred and sixty-one, for paying and discharging the Debts and Wadset Sums aforesaid, and has, in part, been applied in paying and discharging the several Creditors upon the said Estate, who produced the Decrees of the Court of Session, sustaining their several Claims in the said Court of Exchequer, according to the Directions of the aforesaid Statute: And whereas the Wadsetters upon the said Estate whose Claims have been sustained for their several Wadset Sums, by Decrees of the said Court of Session, are in Possession and Receipt of the Rents and Profits of the Lands wadsetted to them respectively, for Payment of their several Wadset Sums, and cannot be removed from that Possession until their Wadsetts are redeemed by Payment or Consignation of their several Wadset Sums, according to the Order of Redemption prescribed in their several Wadset Rights, whereby the Trustees and Commissioners for managing the said annexed Estates, are kept out of the Possession and Receipt of the Rents and Profits of the said Wadset Lands, and, in the mean Time, the Money provided by Parliament, and lodged in the said Bank for discharging these Wadsets, remains a dead Stock bearing no Interest: And whereas the prosecuting of separate Declarators of Redemption, and removing against each of the said Wadsetters, would be attended with great Delay, and unnecessary Expence to the Publick;’ Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That one Action of Declarator of Redemption, containing a Conclusion of removing, may be brought before the Court of Session, in the Name of his Majesty’s Advocate, against the whole Wadsetters upon the said Estate, which may and shall be served against the Defendants under the general Description of The Wadsetters upon the Estate of Lovat, by one edictal Citation upon Oath, thirty Days Notice to be affixed on the Walls of the Inner and Outer House of the said Court of Session, where the Rolls of Causes in that Court are usually affixed, concluding to have it found and declared, That the Lodgement of the Sums aforesaid in the Royal Bank at Edinburgh, for paying and discharging their several Wadset Sums, is and shall be deemed and taken to be a legal and proper Consignation of their several Wadset Sums, to all Intents and Purposes, as if the Order of Redemption prescribed in their several Wadset Rights had been complied with and followed out against each of them separately; and that the Lands and other Heretages wadsetted to them respectively, shall be held, deemed, and taken to be redeemed, and out quit from them, their Heirs and Successors respectively; and they and their Tenants, Servants, and other Dependants, be removed from the Possession of the said Lands and other Heretages wadsetted to them as aforesaid, at the respective Terms of Removing specified in their several Wadset Rights, and Decrees of the Court of Session sustaining their Claims, or at such other Term or Terms as to the said Court shall seem just, so as that the said Commissioners and Trustees, and their Tenants, may have free Access to enter to the Possession of the said Wadset Lands in Time coming; and the said Court of Session is hereby authorized and required to proceed in the aforesaid Action in a summary Manner, without abiding the Course of any Roll, and to give the like Decree or Decrees therein as would have been competent in Law in a separate Action of Declarator and Removing against each of the said Wadsetters, proceeding upon the Order of Redemption laid down and prescribed in their several Wadset Rights.

One Action of Declarator of Redemption, containing a Conclusion of removing, may be brought in the Name of the King’s Advocate, against the whole Wadsetters upon the Estate of Lovat, the Lodgement of the Money in the Bank at Edinburgh, for paying off the Wadset Sums, being deemed a legal Consignation thereof; and the Lands to be thereupon redeemed, and the Occupiers removed, and the Commissioners and Trustees, and their Tenants, to enter into Possession:

The Court to proceed in the said Action in a summary Way.

Wadsetters may compleat their Titles, by obtaining Charters, &c. from the Commissioners, paying the usual Fees;

and upon compleating the same; and granting Discharges; and producing the same to the Barons of the Exchequer, with Decrees of the Court sustaining the Claims;

‘ VI. And whereas it may happen that some of the said Wadsetters may not be duly vested and seized in the said Wadset Lands, so as to be enabled to discharge and renounce their Wadset Right in a habile and proper Manner;’ Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to and for all and every Person or Persons having Right to such Wadsetts, and to the Decrees of the Court of Session sustaining the same, to compleat their Titles in the Wadset Lands respectively, by obtaining Charters, Precepts of Clare Constab, or other Warrants for Infeoffment, from the said Commissioners and Trustees, in the same Way and Manner, and upon Payment of the same Fees, as by this Act is made competent to the Vassals of the said annexed Estates.

VII. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That upon compleating such Titles, and granting the proper Discharges and Renunciations of the said Wadset Rights, or of any of them, and producing the same before the Barons of the said Court of Exchequer, together with the Decree or Decrees of the Court of Session sustaining the Claim or Claims of such Wadsetter or Wadsetters, the Barons of the said Court of Exchequer, or any three or more of them, shall, and they are hereby impowered and required, to make out Debentures or Certificates for the several Sums of Money which shall shall appear to be due by and under the said Decrees respectively, in the same Form, and to be issued, delivered, and paid to the said Wadsetters, or others in their Name, in the same Way and Manner as is provided for and directed by the Act above recited, with respect to the Payment of the other Creditors upon the said Estate; and the said Debentures or Certificates shall be to the said Royal Bank at Edinburgh sufficient Discharges for such Payment.

VIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the whole Provisions of this Act touching the Entry of the Vassals of the annexed Estates aforesaid to their respective Lands and Heretages, shall extend to the Vassals of all such other Estates as now are, or may be, annexed to the Imperial Crown of this Realm, in pursuance of the aforesaid Act of the twenty-fifth Year of his late Majesty's Reign, from and after the Time that such other Estates shall become subject to the Administration and Management of the Commissioners and Trustees appointed, or to be appointed, by his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, in pursuance of the said Act; and that in all Cases, and so often as it shall happen, that Provision shall be made by Parliament for paying and discharging the Wadsetts affecting any such other Estate which now is, or hereafter may be, annexed to the Crown in pursuance of the aforesaid Act, the like Action against the Wadsetters of each Estate respectively shall be competent to his Majesty's Advocate, and shall proceed in the same Form and Manner, and to the same Effect; and that the like Method of compleating the Titles of the Wadsetters upon such other Estates, and of renouncing and discharging the same, shall be competent to them, and take place in the same Form and Manner as herein is above provided with respect to the Wadsetters of the Estate of Lovat.

the Barons shall make out Debentures for the Money due; which shall be Discharges to the Bank.

The Provisions touching the Entry of the Vassals of the said annexed Estates, shall extend to all such other Estates as are, or may be, annexed to the Crown, in pursuance of Act 25 Geo. 2. &c.

and the like Action shall be competent, in like Cases, against the Wadsetters of such Estates; and they shall have like Method of compleating their Titles, and of renouncing the same.

‘ as the Commissioners for the Discovery of the Longitude should think necessary, for making further Experiments: And whereas the said Commissioners have, by virtue of the Powers vested in them by the said several Acts before-mentioned, heard and received several Proposals made to them, at different Times, for discovering the said Longitude, and have accordingly certified the same, from Time to Time, to the Commissioners of the Navy for the Time being, whereupon Bills have been made out for several Sums of Money, amounting, in the Whole, to four thousand Pounds; all which respective Sums have been paid to several Persons by the Treasurer of the Navy, pursuant to the Directions of the said Acts of Parliament; which the said Commissioners, for discovering the Longitude, thought necessary for making the said Experiments: And whereas by reason of the several Payments made by the Treasurer of the Navy to the several Persons as aforesaid, the said Commissioners have, by virtue of the said Acts of Parliament, expended the Whole of the Sums thereby granted for the Purposes aforesaid: And whereas, from the Experiments which have already been made in pursuance of the Powers vested in the said Commissioners as aforesaid, there is great Reason to expect that, by continuing to encourage ingenious Persons to invent and make further Improvements and Experiments, in order to discover the said Longitude, such Discoveries may at length be produced as will effectually answer that End, and thereby contribute very much to the Advantage of the Trade and Honour of this Kingdom:’ Therefore, for enabling the said Commissioners to cause such further Experiments to be made as they shall think proper for the Purposes aforesaid, Be it enacted by the King’s most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the said Commissioners, constituted by the said several Acts of Parliament before-mentioned for the Discovery of the Longitude at Sea, and for examining, trying, and judging of all Proposals, Experiments, and Improvements relating to the same, or any five or more of them, shall have full Power to hear and receive any Proposal or Proposals that have been, or shall hereafter be made to them for discovering the said Longitude at Sea; and in case the said Commissioners, or any five or more of them, shall be so far satisfied of the Probability of any such Proposal or Discovery, as to think it proper to make Experiment thereof, they shall certify the same, under their Hands and Seals, to the Commissioners of the Navy for the Time being, together with the Persons Names who shall be the Authors of such Proposals; and, upon producing such Certificate, the said Commissioners of the Navy are hereby authorized and required to make out a Bill or Bills for any such Sum or Sums of Money, not exceeding two thousand Pounds, as the said Commissioners for the Discovery of the said Longitude, or any five or more of them, shall think necessary for making any Experiments in pursuance of this Act, or any of the said former Acts above-mentioned, payable by the Treasurer of the Navy; which Sum or Sums the Treasurer of the Navy for the Time being is hereby required to pay immediately to such Person or Persons as shall be appointed by the Commissioners for the Discovery of the said Longitude, to make those Experiments, out of any Money that shall be in his the said Treasurer’s Hands unapplied for the Use of the Navy.

LVII. And be it enacted, That in the several Counties, Ridings, and Places, where the Militia has been or shall be raised, his Majesty's Lieutenant of every such County, Riding, and Place, together with any two or more Lieutenants, and on the Death or Removal, or in the Absence, of his Majesty's Lieutenant, any three or more Deputy Lieutenants, shall meet annually on the last Tuesday in May, or on the last Tuesday in October, as they shall think most convenient for the due Execution of this Act; and shall appoint the Times and Places for holding four or more subdivision Meetings

LIX. And be it enacted, That the said Deputy Lieutenants, or any three or more of them, or any two Deputy Lieutenants together with any one Justice of the Peace, or any one Deputy Lieutenant together with any two Justices of the Peace, shall meet in their several Subdivisions at the Times appointed at the General Meetings of his Majesty's Lieutenant and Deputy Lieutenants; And if any private Militia Man shall shew just cause for his Discharge, and, being embodied, shall likewise produce a regular Discharge from his commanding Officer, the said Deputy Lieutenants, or any three or more of them, or any two Deputy Lieutenants together with any one Justice of the Peace, or any one Deputy Lieutenant together with any two Justices of the Peace, shall and may, at such Subdivision Meetings, discharge such Person from serving in the Militia; and in the Stead of the Persons so discharged, and also if there should be any other Vacancy by Death or otherwise, such Deputy Lieutenants, or any three or more of them, or any two Deputy Lieutenants together with any one Justice of the Peace, or any one Deputy Lieutenant together with any two Justices of the Peace, shall, after having amended the Lists in the same manner as the Deputy Lieutenants and Justices, in their Subdivisions, are to amend the Lists in the several Counties where the Militia has not been raised, cause a like Number of other Persons to be chosen by Lot out of the Lists of such Parishes, Tythings or Places, where such Vacancies shall happen, unless such Number of Persons shall be otherwise provided as is by this Act directed; which Persons so chosen, or their Substitutes provided and approved as aforesaid, shall take the Oath required by this Act to be taken: And every Person so chosen shall be inrolled, and every Substitute so provided shall subscribe his Consent to serve, and shall serve in the said Militia for the Space of three Years, subject to the Directions, Provisions, and Penalties in this Act contained.

And be it enacted, That when any Substitute shall, after having been approved by any three Deputy Lieutenants, or by any two Deputy Lieutenants together with any one Justice of the Peace, or by any one Deputy Lieutenant together with any two Justices of the Peace, and before the Expiration of the Term for which he was to serve, die, or be appointed a Serjeant in the Militia, or be legally discharged, the Person for whom he served as Substitute shall not be obliged to serve himself, or to find another Substitute; but such Vacancy shall be filled up in like manner as is directed by this Act, in case of Vacancies occasioned by the Death or Discharge of Persons serving for themselves.

LXII. And be it enacted, That for the Purpose of swearing and inrolling Men to serve in the Militia, it shall and may be lawful for any one Deputy Lieutenant, at any Place in the Subdivision he usually acts in, to swear and inrol any Substitute to serve for any Place in such his Subdivision; provided such Substitute shall produce to such Deputy Lieutenant a Certificate under the Hands and Seals of any two other Deputy Lieutenants, or of any one Justice of the Peace together with any one Deputy Lieutenant, or of any two Justices of the Peace acting in the same Subdivision, or residing near the same, certifying they have seen, and do approve of, such Substitute as a proper Person to serve in the Militia, and such Person shall and may be sworn and inrolled by such Deputy Lieutenant only: Provided nevertheless, that the Clerk belonging to such Subdivision shall and do attend with the Roll at such swearing and inrolling.

LXIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That if any Militia Man shall, during the Time that the Regiment or Battalion in which he serves shall be embodied, be discharged by the Officer commanding such Regiment or Battalion, such Discharge shall be sufficient to prevent such Man from being liable to be apprehended as a Defenter, but shall not extend to cause another Man to be chosen to serve for the Parish, Tything, or Place, or Parishes, Tythings, or Places, for which such Man so discharged did serve, unless he be likewise regularly discharged by the Deputy Lieutenant or Deputy Lieutenants and Justices of the Peace as aforesaid.

LXIV. And be it further enacted, That all such Militia Men whose Time of Service in the Militia shall be near expiring, during the Time the Regiment, Battalion, or Independent Company, in which they served, shall be absent from the County, Riding or Place, to which they belong, shall be returned by the commanding Officer of such Regiment, Battalion, or Independent Company, to the County, Riding, or Place, for which they served, so as that they may reach the said County by the Expiration of their Term.

LXV. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for his Majesty's Lieutenant together with any two or more Deputy Lieutenants, and on the Death or Removal, or, in the Absence Removal of a private Man into another Parish, &c. the Militia whereof serves in the same Regiment, does not alter his Service, nor occasion a Vacancy in his former Parish; but if the Removal be into another County, &c. the Militia whereof serves in different Regiments, he shall serve his Time out in the Regiment of that Place, upon the first Vacancy; and he is to give previous Notice of his Removal to the D. Lieutenants, and receive a Certificate of his Service; and if given by one D. LXVIII. And be it enacted, That the Clerk to the Subdivision Meeting shall, upon Notice given by any Militia Man of the changing of his Place of Abode, and of a Certificate granted him as aforesaid, forthwith give Notice thereof to the Clerk of the Meeting for the Subdivision to which the Parish, Tything, or Place, where he then resides shall belong.

LXIX. Provided always, that no Militia Man having served as a Substitute, shall, by such Service, be excused from serving for himself when he shall be chosen by Lot.

C A P. XXVII.

An Act for enabling the Judges of the Court of Session in Scotland to make an Adjournment of the said Court for such Time, betwixt the twentieth Day of December and the fifteenth Day of January yearly, as they shall judge most convenient, not exceeding twenty Days.

Preamble, reciting Act 3 Geo. 2. c. 32.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the third Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King George the Second, intituled, An Act for enabling the Judges of the Court of Session in Scotland, to make an Adjournment of the said Court, which recites that the said continued Sittings of the Court of Session in Scotland, from the first Day of November to the last Day of February yearly had been found inconvenient and burthensome: For Remedy whereof, it is thereby enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Judges of the said Court of Session, and they are hereby impowered to make an Adjournment of their Sessions, on such Day betwixt the fifteenth Day of December and the fifteenth Day of January yearly, and for such Time as they shall judge most convenient, not exceeding ten Days: And whereas it has been found by Experience, that an Adjournment of ten Days in so long a Session is not at all Times sufficient for answering the Purposes thereby intended, and that the Course of Business, before the said Court, may often require an Adjournment for some Time longer, not only for enabling the Judges to advise such Causes as they cannot overtake during their Sittings, but also for enabling the Council more fully and accurately to prepare their Causes for the Decision of the Court, whereby great Delays and Expence in carrying on Business before the said Court would be prevented; Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall and may be lawful for the Judges of the said Court of Session in Scotland, and they are hereby impowered to make an Adjournment of their Sessions, on such Day betwixt the twentieth Day of December and the fifteenth Day of January yearly, and for such Time as they shall judge expedient, not exceeding the Space of twenty Days; any Law, Statute, or Usage, to the contrary notwithstanding.

LVIII. Provided always, That if it shall be found that the Water in the River Witham shall be so low as that a sufficient Quantity cannot be issued and taken thereout for the Use of Cattle in Wildmore Fen, then the Commissioners of the fourth District, or any five or more of them, shall and may, and they are hereby authorized and impowered to place, or cause to be placed, removeable Shuttles on the Top of the Land Door at the Grand Staunch, so as to raise the Water in the new intended River to such a Height as to issue Water in dry Seasons through the said Tunnel into the said Fens for the Purposes aforesaid; but subject nevertheless to be removed and abated by the general Commissioners, or any five or more of them, if they shall find the same prejudicial to the Drainage intended by this Act.

LIX. And be it further enacted, That the Site or Bed of the old River Witham, where the same is not already inclosed, shall be, and the same is hereby vested in the general Commissioners, to be by them, or any five or more of them, applied and disposed of in such Manner as they shall think necessary and proper for the general Works of Drainage.

LXII. And be it further enacted, That the Commissioners of the said respective Districts, or any five or more of them, shall and may, and they are hereby authorized and impowered to make Exchanges of any Fen or common Lands, which shall be separated by any such Cut to be made for the Purposes of this Act.

LXIII. And whereas, according to the Plan herein before prescribed, the ancient and publick High Road leading from Tattershall Town to and over Tattershall Ferry, and to the Town of Billinghay, will be in a great Measure covered by Part of the Banks which are to be thrown up and made on the North and South Sides of the River Witham, at and near Tattershall Ferry, and by the Bank which is to be thrown up and made on the North West Side of Billinghay Skirthe; Be it therefore further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the present Proprietor of the said Ferry, or his Heirs and Assigns, to preserve and continue the said Ferry, and all Rights and Privileges belonging to the same, in as full and ample Manner as the same is now enjoyed; and also that the said High Road, now leading from Tattershall to the said Ferry, shall be and remain over the Bank intended to be raised by virtue of this Act on the North Side of the River Witham, free and open to all his Majesty's Subjects; this Act or any thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding: And that the said Road leading from the said Ferry to Billinghay shall pass and be upon the Bank which shall be made by virtue of this Act upon the North West Side of Billinghay Skirthe, which is hereby declared and enacted to be a publick and common Highway for all his Majesty's Subjects passing and re-passing on Foot, or with Horses, Cattle, Carts, and other Carriages; and that such Person or Persons as, by reason of Tenure or otherwise howsoever, are now bound to repair the last-mentioned Part of the said Road, shall and may, and such Person and Persons are hereby impowered and required, from time to time, as often as Occasion shall require, to repair, amend, and sustain such new Road, to be formed upon the said Bank in Manner aforesaid, and for that Purpose to enlarge the said Bank in Breadth to any Dimensions, not exceeding forty Feet in the whole.

LXIV. Provided always, That the said Bank shall for ever be and remain at the least twelve Feet; and that nothing shall be done upon or in relation to the said Road or Ferry which shall in any wise impede, obstruct, or make worse the Drainage or Navigation intended by this Act, or any Works necessary or proper for effecting the same; and that the Materials for amending and supporting the same shall and may be taken out of the said River called Billinghay Skirthe, and out of such Part of the said River Witham adjoining to the said Ferry, as shall be found most convenient for the Purposes aforesaid, and so adjudged by the said Commissioners for Drainage, or any five or more of them, by Writing under their Hands and Seals.

LXV. And whereas there has been, for Time immemorial, several other ferrying Places across the said River Witham, the Property of divers Lords of Manors, or other Persons; Be it therefore enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the present Proprietors of the said Ferries, their Heirs or Assigns, to preserve and continue the said Ferries, and all Rights and Privileges belonging to the same, same, in as full and ample a Manner as the same are now enjoyed; and also that the High Roads or Ways now leading to the said several Ferries respectively, shall remain over the Banks intended to made or raised by virtue of this Act on both Sides the said River Witham, free and open to all his Majesty's Subjects: And that it shall be lawful to and for the said Proprietors of the said Ferries respectively, or for the several Persons now bound by Law to repair the said Roads respectively, to add to the Sides of the said Banks such further Soil, Gravel or other Materials, as shall be necessary and sufficient for forming and rendering the said Roads practicable and convenient over the said Banks respectively, so that the same, or any of them, may not be in any Manner reduced below the Dimensions in and by this Act provided and expressed for the same respectively; this Act or any thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

LXVI. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the said General Commissioners, or any five or more of them, to cause a sufficient Bridge to be erected across the intended new Cut or River, at some Part thereof about half way between Anthony's Gowt and Boston, for the Purpose only of preserving a Communication between the Houses in Boston West and Holland Fen, which Houses will be separated from the said Fen by the said intended new Cut or River. A Bridge to be built to preserve a Communication between Boston West and Holland Fen.

LXVII. And be it further enacted, That if the said Commissioners for Drainage, in pursuance of the Powers by this Act granted, shall by scouring out any of the Side Rivers in this Act mentioned, deepen the same, so as to render any Ford or Fords across the said Rivers, or either of them, unpassable, whereby the Communication between any Roads or Lands on each Side thereof shall be interrupted or prevented, the said Commissioners shall, at the publick Charge, either new make such Fords with Stones, Gravel or other sufficient Materials, or else build a Bridge or Bridges over such River or Rivers, in order to restore such Communication in as effectual a Manner as the same was before the passing of this Act. Fords to be repaired, or Bridges built.

LXVIII. And forasmuch as the Money to be collected by the Receipt of the Taxes by this Act laid and made payable as aforesaid, will not be sufficient for the speedy Execution of the general Works of Drainage to be done in pursuance of this Act; Be it therefore enacted, That the said General Commissioners, or any seven or more of them, shall and may, and they are hereby authorized and empowered, from Time to Time, as it shall be found requisite and necessary for the Purposes aforesaid, to raise Money upon the best Terms and by the best Methods the same can be procured; and for that Purpose they, or any seven or more of them, shall and may, and they are hereby authorized and empowered to treat, contract and agree with any Person or Persons, either for the Purchase of an Annuity for Life, or the Loan of any Sum or Sums of Money upon Mortgage respectively; and also, in pursuance or Execution of such Contract or Agreement, it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Commissioners, or any seven or more of them, by any Writing or Writings under their Hands and Seals, to charge the said Taxes to arise by virtue of this Act, for the Purpose of the general Drainage, or any Part thereof, with any Annuity or Annuities, to such Person or Persons as shall treat for the same during a Life, to be by them respectively named, or to assign, transfer, and make over the said Taxes, or any Part thereof, unto any Person or Persons who shall advance and lend any Money thereupon, for such Term of Years as shall be agreed upon in that Behalf, by way of Mortgage and as a Security for the Repayment thereof, with Interest, at such Times, and in such Manner, as shall be agreed upon by the said General Commissioners. Annuities to be granted for Money borrowed, or Taxes assigned.

LXIX.
